

Vacation's Ended, Back to Work But We Certainly Have a Good Time While We Wait

Alice Joyce (Mrs. Tom Moore) and Tom took the new baby, Alice Mary Moore, down to the beach at Sea Gate every pleasant day. And that was vacation enough from their work at the Vitagraph studio. At the left—Louise Dresser and Laddie at Mt. Vernon.

Alice Lloyd had a glorious time feeding the chickens down at Islip, L. I. She says the appetites of those chickens always will be an inspiration to her.

Elsie Janis has a beautiful place up Tarrytown way. She says she just loves to sit and fish and think. Perhaps she's thinking how dreadful it would be really to catch a fish.

Mitsi Hajos could devote plenty of time to her two little Pom Poms at Larchmont. She didn't have to worry about engagements. There was the original "Pom Pom" good for a second season on Broadway.

Ann Pennington has been too busy in the movies to go on vacation. But she is an amateur fisherman from work.

James K. Hackett and Mrs. Hackett spent their vacation sailing all around the Thousand Islands. Mr. Hackett has no plans for the current theatrical season. But, for that matter, he doesn't have to, you know.

Since Vernon went to war Irene Castle has consoled herself with a monkey, a German police dog and acting in movies up at Ithaca, and here she is back in town.
